

Cornerstone Services - 6 Month Solo Operator Strategy

SECTION 1 – 6 Month Financial Projection

Target: $95-$105 average ticket

20 calls per week at $100 average = $2,000/week

$8,000/month = $96,000 annual pace

Estimated Monthly Expenses:

Insurance: ~$1,200

Fuel: ~$1,000 (varies by mileage)

Miscellaneous: ~$300

Projected Net Before Taxes: $65k-$72k

After Estimated Taxes: $50k-$55k

Add-ons such as battery installs, memberships, and fleet contracts can push revenue beyond $90k gross.

SECTION 2 – Pricing Psychology Strategy

- Never apologize for your price.
- Quote total confidently: "The total will be $95 including dispatch and service."
- Lead with arrival time value.
- Charge premiums after 8PM.
- Raise prices every 60-90 days once demand increases.

SECTION 3 – Local Marketing Blueprint

- Fully optimize Google Business Profile.
- List all service areas clearly.
- Ask every customer for a review (have them mention their city).
- Post weekly in local Facebook groups.

- Leave business cards at gas stations and auto parts stores.
- Introduce referral incentive after Month 2.

SECTION 4 – Daily Operations Workflow

Morning:

- Check equipment and fuel.
- Review zone focus for the day.
- Confirm phone and payment methods ready.

During Calls:

- Log customer information immediately.
- Quote confidently and require prepayment for long-distance calls.
- Provide receipt and request review.

Evening:

- Log revenue and mileage.
- Transfer 25-30% into tax savings account.
- Review next day's service zone.

SECTION 5 – 6 Month Scaling Milestones

Month 1: 10+ reviews, pricing refinement.

Month 2: Slight pricing increase.

Month 3: Launch membership plan.

Month 4-5: Add battery install upsell.

Month 6: Evaluate LLC transition and expansion.
